Compensation for land acquisition

2788. SHRI KARNENDU BHATTACHARJEE: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the policy, procedure and practice being adopted for making payment of compensation to the land owners whose land is acquired;

(b) whether compensation is paid through Addl. District Judge or Land Acquisition Collector directly;

(c)the number of appealable and non-appealable cases in which payment of compensation has been made directly by the land Acquisition Collector, South Delhi to land owners during the last three years, year-wise; and

(d)whether any payment in respect of non-appealable case has been sent to Addl. District Judge for disbursement alongwith names and award numbers?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi (GNCTD) have reported that as per policy the payment of original compensation to the land owners whose land is acquired is made by the Land Acquisition Collector (LAC) Office after receipt of payment from Requisitioning Department. The landowners are required to submit surety bond, affidavit and ownership proof of the property.

(b)Original compensation is paid by LAC directly. In case of any dispute regarding claimant, compensation amount is sent to Additional District Judge Court under section 30,31 of Land Acquisition Act, 1894. Earlier the enhanced compensation both appealable as well as nonappealable were sent to the Court of Additional District Judge (ADJ) for disbursement. As per revised procedure introduced in 2005 payment of non-appealable enhanced compensation is made directly by the LAC to the land owners subject to furnishing of relevant documents.

(c) and (d)

2003	-	Nil
2004	-	Nil
2005	-	Payment is 8 cases of non appealable enhanced compensation have been directly made by LAC (South).

All payments in cases of non-appealable enhanced compensation prior to adoption of revised procedure have been sent to ADJ for disbursement alongwith the names and award numbers.
